If the by-election of a member of the Supervisory Board who has left the Supervisory Board prematurely is to result in the departure of a substitute member who has stepped up, the resolution on the by-election requires a majority of three quarters of the votes cast.

(5) Each member of the Supervisory Board and substitute member may also resign from office without good cause by submitting a written declaration to the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board, or in the event of resignation from office by the Chairperson to their deputy, giving one month's notice. (2) If the Chairperson or their Deputy resigns from office prematurely, the Supervisory Board shall immediately hold a new election for the resigning member's remaining term of office.

§ 11 Supervisory Board meetings

(1) The Supervisory Board meetings shall be convened in writing by the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board with 14 days' notice. (2) The Supervisory Board meetings shall be chaired by the Chairperson.

(3) The agenda shall be communicated when convening the meeting. If the agenda has not been properly announced, resolutions may only be passed on items on the agenda that were not included in the invitation and were also not communicated by the third day before the meeting if no Supervisory Board member objects. In such a case, absent members shall be given the opportunity to object to the adoption of the resolution or to cast their vote in writing, verbally, by telephone, by fax, by email or by any other customary means of communication within a reasonable period to be determined by the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board. The resolution shall only become effective if no absent member of the Supervisory Board has objected by the deadline. Members of the Supervisory Board who are connected by telephone or electronic means of communication shall be deemed to be present.

§ 12 Supervisory Board resolutions

(1) Supervisory Board resolutions are generally passed in meetings. By order of the Chairperson or with the consent of all members of the Supervisory Board, meetings may also be held in the form of a telephone conference or by means of other electronic means of communication (in particular video conference) and individual members of the Supervisory Board may be connected by telephone or by means of electronic means of communication (in particular video transmission); in such cases, resolutions may be adopted by way of telephone conference or by means of other electronic means of communication (in particular video conference). Absent members of the Supervisory Board or members of the Supervisory Board who do not participate in the conference call or are not connected to the conference call may also participate in the adoption of resolutions by the Supervisory Board by having written votes submitted by another member of the Supervisory Board. In addition, they may also cast their vote in advance of the meeting, during the meeting or subsequently within a reasonable period of time to be determined by the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board, also verbally, by telephone, by fax, by email or by other customary means of communication. There shall be no right to object to the form of decision-making ordered by the Chairperson.

(2) Outside of meetings, resolutions may be passed in writing, by telex or by telephone, or by electronic media, as well as in a combination of the aforementioned forms, if no member objects to this procedure within a reasonable period of time determined by the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board. Such resolutions shall be immediately recorded in writing by the Chairperson and circulated to all members. The following provisions shall apply mutatis mutandis to votes taken outside meetings.

(3) A member shall participate in the adoption of resolutions even if they abstain from voting.

(4) Supervisory Board resolutions shall be adopted by a simple majority of the votes cast, unless otherwise stipulated by law. Abstentions shall not be counted as votes. In the event of a tie, the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board has the casting vote; this also applies to elections.

(5) The Chairperson of the Supervisory Board is authorised to make the declarations of intent required to implement the Supervisory Board resolutions on behalf of the Supervisory Board.

(6) Minutes shall be taken of the Supervisory Board discussion and resolutions, which shall be signed by the Chairperson of the meeting or, in the case of voting outside meetings, by the person in charge of the vote.

If the term of office of a Supervisory Board member was not uninterrupted for the entire financial year, the Supervisory Board remuneration is calculated pro rata temporis. The Annual General Meeting is entitled to adjust the amount of remuneration or to set a different remuneration by resolution.

(2) The members of the Supervisory Board shall also be reimbursed for all out-of-pocket expenses as well as for any value-added tax payable on remuneration and out-of-pocket expenses.

(3) The Company is entitled to insure the members of the Supervisory Board against the risks of their Supervisory Board activities to an appropriate extent at the Company's expense.

§ 17 Annual General Meeting Chair and agenda

(1) Only those shareholders who are registered in the Company's share register on the day of the Annual General Meeting and whose registration is received by the Company at the address specified for this purpose in the notice of the meeting at least six days before the meeting shall be entitled to attend the Annual General Meeting and exercise their voting rights. The convening of the meeting may provide for a shorter period, to be measured in days. The day of the Annual General Meeting and the day it is convened shall not be counted. Registration may be in writing or by electronic means to be specified in the notice convening the Annual General Meeting. It must be in German or English.

(2) The Executive Board is authorised to provide that shareholders may participate in the Annual General Meeting without being present at its venue and without a proxy and may exercise all or some of their rights in whole or in part by means of electronic communication. The Executive Board is also authorised to make provisions regarding the scope and procedure of participation and the exercising of rights. The details are to be announced in the notice convening the Annual General Meeting.

(3) The Executive Board is entitled, but not obliged, to provide information on the Company's website prior to the Annual General Meeting. If applicable, the information must be available there for at least seven days before the beginning of the Annual General Meeting and until it is concluded and must be continuously accessible during the Annual General Meeting.

(4) Section 121^o(6) of the AktG remains unaffected.

§ 18 Voting rights

(1) Each share grants one vote at the Annual General Meeting.

(2) Voting rights may be exercised by proxy. The granting of power of attorney, its revocation and the proof of authorisation to the Company require written notice; Section 135 of the AktG remains unaffected. The notice convening the meeting may specify an easing of this requirement. The details regarding power of attorney are to be announced in the notice convening the Annual General Meeting.

(3) The Company may appoint proxies in the convening notice who may be authorised to exercise voting rights. The details regarding the granting of these proxies are to be announced in the notice convening the Annual General Meeting.

The Executive Board is also authorised to make provisions regarding procedure. The details are to be announced in the notice convening the Annual General Meeting.

§ 19 Annual General Meeting Chair

(1) The Annual General Meeting shall be chaired by the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board, one of their deputies or another member of the Supervisory Board to be determined by the Supervisory Board or another third person designated for this purpose by the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board.

(2) The chairperson of the meeting shall chair the meeting and regulate the procedure of the Annual General Meeting. In doing so, they may avail themselves of the assistance of support persons, in particular in exercising domiciliary rights. They determine the order of speakers and the treatment of the items on the agenda as well as the form, procedure and further details of the voting and may, to the extent permitted by law, decide on combining factually related resolution items into one voting item.

(3) They may impose reasonable time limits on the shareholders' right to speak and ask questions; in particular, they may reasonably determine the time frame for the course of the meeting, for the discussion of the agenda items and for individual speeches and questions; this includes, in particular, the possibility to close the list of speakers early and to order the end of the debate, if necessary.

(4) The Executive Board is authorised to permit the complete or partial video and audio transmission of the meeting in a manner to be determined by the Executive Board. The details are to be announced in the notice convening the Annual General Meeting.

(5) In agreement with the person in charge of the meeting, members of the Supervisory Board are exceptionally permitted to participate in the Annual General Meeting by means of audio and video transmission in cases where they are prevented from attending for business reasons or would have to travel to the Annual General Meeting venue at considerable expense in terms of time or money.

§ 20 Adoption of resolutions

(1) The Annual General Meeting resolutions shall require a simple majority of the votes cast, unless the law mandatorily requires otherwise. In cases where the law requires a majority of the share capital represented when the resolution is adopted, a simple majority of the share capital represented is sufficient, unless a larger majority is prescribed by law. For amendments to the Articles of Association, a simple majority of the votes cast shall suffice, unless mandatory statutory provisions or the Articles of Association stipulate otherwise. Resolutions on the Company's capital increases (Section 182 of the AktG) shall also be adopted by a simple majority of the votes cast. Abstentions shall not be counted as votes. In the event of a tie, a motion shall be deemed to be rejected.

(2) If a simple majority of votes is not achieved in an election in the first ballot, the next ballot shall be held between the two people who received the largest numbers of votes. In the event of a second ballot, the highest number of votes shall be decisive; in the event of a tie, the Chairperson shall draw lots.
