If instructions are not completed correctly or are not issued clearly, the proxies will abstain from voting on the relevant agenda items or not participate in the vote, depending on the voting procedure. The proxies are bound by instructions and may not exercise voting rights in the case of votes not known in advance of the Annual General Meeting (e.g. procedural motions). Depending on the voting procedure, the proxies will abstain or not participate in the vote in such cases. The same applies in the case of a vote on a counter-motion, an election proposal that deviates from the management proposal, and a resolution that deviates from the management proposal published in the agenda.

You may not authorize the company's proxies to vote on your behalf or to submit motions or questions. In the event of online participation or participation in the virtual Annual General Meeting by a third party authorized by you, the proxy and instructions issued by you to the company proxies in advance of the Annual General Meeting must be revoked.
